COLLECTIVE ACT OF WORSHIP Week Beginning 10 December 2012

PREPARING FOR CHRISTMAS

1. Teacher to read:

Advent calendars

Have you got your Advent Calendars up yet? Some of you may have ones with sweets or chocolates inside the windows. Counting down the days until Christmas may be fun and exciting, and we are never too old to enjoy the pre-Christmas excitement.

Christians' preparations

For Christians, though, Advent is a serious time of preparation for two reasons: first, they are preparing to celebrate the birth of Jesus which took place about 2000 years ago; secondly, they are preparing for when Jesus will come again and will judge everyone.

2. Time to think

As Christmas is approaching, we each need to examine the way we treat other people – our parents, brothers and sisters, teachers, friends, other students – and ask ourselves whether we would be ready to face a judgement such as the one Christians expect.

3. Discuss with a partner how you treat:

- your parents
- your brothers, sisters
- your teachers
- your friends
- other students.

4. Write down a list of how you can treat at least three people a little better during the next few weeks.
