ACHIEVEMENT

"It's not what you achieve in life, it's how you have helped to improved the life of others whilst reaching your achievements"

Louisa May Fry

Towards the end of the school year is a time to reflect on what you have achieved. There are two types of achievement: Personal and Public.

Personal achievement is an achievement you have experienced that is personal to you, e.g. caring for someone who is ill; helping someone who has been bullied. This kind of achievement helps improve the life of others.

Public achievement is an achievement in which you have been recognised by others, e.g. winning a sport's race; achieving a merit certificate. This type of achievement gives you and others who know you a great sense of pride.

- Make a list of your personal achievements this year.
- Make a list of your public achievements this year.
- Discuss the lists with your partner.
- Discuss with your partner which of your achievements made you and other people the happiest and the reason why.
- Write a short article about a person who you admire - a person who has achieved something special.
