COLLECTIVE ACT OF WORSHIP
Week Beginning
7 June 2010

MEET YOUR CONSCIENCE

“A person’s actions have consequences for other people. Crimes can have a far greater effect on the victim than may be realised”

Linda Hopley (Author)

- Mugging, theft, burglary, assault. Do they realise the effects of their crimes on their victims?
- Discuss in pairs what your reaction would be to being burgled, for example?

“Heartless car thieves stole Tom Brown’s invalid car”
(newspaper headline)

- What do you think would happen if the offenders were forced to meet their victim?
- Write or act out the scene of this or of a similar situation.
- For the victim and the offender in your play, list the rights and responsibilities of each one. Think about what they both owe to society – and what they can expect in return.
